Heard.

Since the subject matter involved in these four writ petitions is the same, on the prayer of the learned counsel for the parties they are being heard analogously and disposed of by this common order.

Admittedly, some of the employees – respondents of the Krishi Upaj Mandi Samitte, Khairagarh Distt. Rajnandgaon had approached the Labour Court, Rajnandgaon for regularization of their services on different posts under the petitioner Mandi. On an application being made, the order, which was passed, in the meantime was stayed. Aggrieved therewith the petitioners came up before this Court. On 11-7-2001 while issuing notice, this Court had directed that the proceedings pending before the Labour Court may continue but final order shall not be passed until further orders. It is stated by the learned counsel for the petitioner that evidence on behalf of the parties has been recorded by the Labour Court but further proceedings remain stayed in view of the interim order passed by this Court. Accordingly, prayer is made that these petitions may be disposed of by directing the Labour Court to dispose of the matter pending before it on merit. It is also brought to the notice of the Court by learned counsel for the petitioner that some employees had directly approached this Court by way of W.P.No.503/2000 claiming similar relief in which certain directions were issued. However, these are the factors, which are required to be taken into consideration by the Labour Court while adjudicating the claim of the applicants therein.

In view of the above matter, these writ petitions i.e. W.P. Nos. 2664/2000, 2262/2000, 2668/2000 & 2669/2000 are disposed of by directing the Labour Court to dispose of the matter pending before it on its own merit and in accordance with law and after affording an opportunity of hearing to the respective parties, within a reasonable time.
